THE SUNDAY BILLS.

There was a heated debate at the opening of the afternoon session over the Reference Committee's standing.
Rep. Aylett wanted to know what had become of his Sunday Observance bill, and was told by Chairman Carl Smith that it was being held up by the submission of other Sunday bills. Aylett moved that his bill should be reported back to the House forthwith, but he relented when Rep. Quinn said that he had a Sunday bill to introduce, and withdrew his motion.

Rep. Long reported that the Senate's conference committee had agreed with that of the House to appoint a joint committee of six from each chamber to examine the county bill and submit a report thereupon.

Speaker Knudsen appointed the fol-

Rice (chairman), Smith, Long, Holmotion carried unanimously.

A FAIR EXCHANGE.

Large sums of money are no doubt realized from simple speculation, but the great fortunes are derived from legitimate and honest business—where the goods furnished are worth the price they bring. Certain famous business men have accumulated their millions wholly in this way.
Prompt and faithful in every contract or engagement they enjoy the confidence of the public and command a class of trade that is refused to unstable or tricky competitors. In the long run it does not pay to cheat or deceive others. A humbug may be advertised with a noise like the blowing of a thousand trumpets, but it is soon detected and exposed. The manufacturers of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION

have always acted on very different principles. Before offering it to the public they first made sure of its merits. Then, and then only, did its name appear in print. People were assured of what it would do, and found the statement truthful. To-day they believe in it as we all believe in the word of a tried and trusted friend. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It aids digestion, drives impurities from the blood, and cures Anemia, Scrofula, Debility, Influenza, Throat and Lung Troubles, and Wasting Complaints. Dr. Louis W. Bishop says: "I take pleasure in saying I have found it a most efficient preparation, embodying all of the medicinal properties of a pure cod liver oil in a most palatable form." It is a scientific remedy and a food with a delicious taste and flavor. One bottle convinces. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by chemists here and everywhere.

IT IS IN THE BLOOD

Neither Liniments nor Ointments Will Reach Rheumatism—How
Mr. Stephenson Was Cured.

People with inflamed and aching joints, or painful muscles; people who shuffle about with the aid of a cane or a crutch and cry, Oh! at every slight jar, are constantly asking, "What is the best thing for rheumatism?"

To attempt to cure rheumatism by external applications is a foolish waste of time. The seat of the disease is in the blood, and while the sufferer is rubbing lotions and grease on the skin the poison in the circulation is increasing.

Delays in adopting a sensible treatment are dangerous because rheumatism may at any moment reach the heart and prove fatal. The only safe course for rheumatic sufferers is to get the best possible blood remedy at once.
Mr. Stephenson's experience with this obstinate and distressing afflic-tion is that of hundreds. He says:

"About a year ago I was attacked by severe rheumatic pains in my left shoulder. The pains were worse in wet weather, and at these periods caused me the greatest suffering. I tried a number of treatments and ointments, but they failed to alleviate the pains." Then he realized that the cause must be deeper and the pain only a surface indication. He adds:

"I had heard Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People recommended as a cure for rheumatism, and when I found that I was getting no relief from applications, I made up my mind that I would try them. Before the first box was gone I noticed that the pains were becoming less frequent, and that they were not so severe as before.
After the second box had been used up I was entirely free from discomfort, and I have had no traces of rheumatism since."

The change in treatment proved by almost immediate results that Mr.
Thomas Stephenson, who lives at No.
115 Greenwood street, Springfield, Mass., had found the true means for the purification and enrichment of his blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are without doubt the best of all blood remedies. They effect genuine and lasting cures in rheumatism. They do not merely deaden the ache, but they expel the poison from the blood. These pills are sold by all druggists.

tain criminal actions may be prosecuted. (Rep. Long).

To amend Section 2 of Act 25 of the laws of 1895, relating to amendments Andrade).

To amend Section 74 of Chapter 74 relating to bills of exceptions. (Rep.

To amend Sections 1155 and 1156 of the Civil Code relating to judgments, and merchandise in the Territory of Hawaii. (Rep. Kaniho).

To prohibit the employment of any person not a duly qualified voter as a

MUCH HARD WORK DONE BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

In the annual report of the work of his office for the years 1903 and 1904, Attorney General Lorrin Andrews says:

"During this period the Attorney General's Office has argued forty-seven (47) cases, in the Supreme Court, for the Territory of Hawaii, as against twenty-eight (28) in the two preceding years.
Of the forty-seven cases disposed of, thirty-six have been decided in favor of the Territory.

"One hundred and forty-three (143) civil suits and special proceedings have been instituted, brought to a conclusion, or otherwise handled during the present biennial period, by this office, as against one hundred and twenty suits and proceedings brought and tried within the last biennial period. Both estimates include seventy-eight (78) fishery right cases, of which further mention will be made later.

"There have been held twenty-eight (28) criminal terms, at which five hundred and nine (509) criminal cases have been disposed of, resulting in three hundred and eighty six (386) convictions, and one hundred and twenty-three (123) acquittals. No record was kept previously, in this office, as to the criminal work, and we therefore have no means of estimating whether it has grown since the last biennial report, but from the size of the calendars, the greatly increased number of terms, and the amount of work involved, it can confidently be stated that the work has almost doubled. This, of course, does not include the additional work of continuous attendance before the Grand Jury, the presentation of evidence, and the consequent necessity of preparing indictments, together with disposal of the various motions concerning the legality of such indictments all of which has taken considerable time and attention on the part of the various members of the office."

The Attorney General says, in his recommendations for the ensuing year:

"It is physically impossible for the work of the Attorney General's office to be kept to the present standard without addition to the working force.

"Another source of constant difficulty, representing an anomaly found nowhere but in this Territory, is the law under which the High Sheriff and his Deputy prosecute cases in the District Courts.
While on the other islands, in country districts, this is undoubtedly necessary, there is no necessity, in Honolulu, for adding to the burdens of the Police Department that of prosecuting in the Police Court. The system has grown to be a cumbersome one, unsatisfactory alike to the Attorney General's and the Police Department. There should be a Police Court prosecutor in Honolulu, appointed by the Attorney General, whose duty it shall be to appear in the District Courts of Honolulu, and, if necessary, in the country districts on the Island of Oahu, and handle criminal matters for the Attorney General's Office. This would insure a careful preparation of the evidence, and give the Attorney General the needed control over police prosecutions, while it would relieve the High Sheriff and his Deputy from the necessity of postponing police work while they prepare cases for trial at the Circuit Court, or attend to criminal prosecutions, to the neglect of the duties of their office."
